

LE PELUT

(HAIRY GRENACHE)

authentique

ALT. 529m

Personality :

Assertive, silky and captivating

Particularities :

A cousin of Grenache Noir, Lledoner Pelut has the particularity of having leaves covered with real down (hence its name, which means "hairy grenache" in Catalan) which captures the nocturnal freshness.

Food and wine pairings :

To taste with a beef tartare, a leg of lamb, or on a cheese board.

DÉNOMINATION :	IGP Côtes Catalanes
ALTITUDE :	525m
TERROIR :	Granitic Arenas & Quartz
CÉPAGES :	100% Lledoner Pelut
DEGRÉ :	13,5%
CENTILISATION :	750ml
BOUCHAGE :	DIAM 3
MILLÉSIME :	2020

The unique climatic conditions encountered in altitude allows our grapes to ripen very slowly, while naturally minimizing the use of treatments. On this granite plateau overlooking the Mediterranean Sea and the Roussillon amphitheatre, our vines produce clear and fresh wines, marked by a pronounced mineral personality.

